FORD'S VIEWS ON WAR CHANGED HIS BIOGRAPHER SAYS

Says U. S. Should Get in at Beginning and Clean Them all Up

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—The assertion that there would be another world war and "the United States should get into it at the beginning and clean them all up," was made by Henry Ford in September 1922, it is declared in a biography of the manufacturer written by Allan R. Benson, once a Socialist candidate for President, publication of which was announced today.

Mr. Benson says the statement was made at a time when the diplomatic situation between Great Britain and Turkey was at its most acute stage and rumors of war were heard on all sides. "Believing that it was should come," says Mr. Benson in his book, "propaganda would at once be unloosed to drag the United States into it. I stopped at Ford Dearborn to interview Ford. I thought he would sound a warning against American participation in European affairs. To my surprise, he did precisely the opposite."

Mr. Benson says he did not publish the interview at that time because "I did not wish his Wall Street friends to have another club to hammer him with. He was not then a political factor and it seemed best not to provide his industrial enemies with another weapon. Since then Ford has become a political factor and the people are entitled to know everything he thinks about public affairs."

"Ford's views on war and peace have changed radically since the beginning of the world war," writes Mr. Benson. He told me in 1916 that he would not be in favor of resisting even invasion by armed force. He took the extreme pacifist position. After America entered the war he perhaps contributed more to its prosecution than any other civilian. He now believes that we shall be most likely to have peace if we have the strongest navy in the world."

Predicted by Roosevelt
Mr. Benson points out that Theodore Roosevelt once predicted that Ford would be a candidate for president in 1924. It was not until 1923, however, he continues, when "Ford for President" clubs began to spring up that the public paid any serious attention to the possibility.

As an indication of how Ford felt toward the idea of being President, Mr. Benson describes an incident in January, 1922, after a luncheon attended by the full staff of executives of the Ford Motor company.

"Ford and I walked behind the others as we returned to his office," says Mr. Benson. "Appropos of nothing in particular, Ford suddenly pointed to one of the men and said: 'There is the kind of a man I would appoint Secretary of the Navy.'"

"After that it did not seem to be necessary to pay much attention to Ford's remarks, but his lack of interest in the great office in the world. Men who are not thinking of the presidency do not consider what men they would appoint to the cabinet. Moreover, men in his position in Ford's service have long urged him as a presidential candidate. Ford could have stopped them. He left them talk. Mr. Benson's biography also touches upon Ford's campaign against the Jews and its sudden cessation. The articles which charged a world-wide conspiracy to overthrow Christian civilization were published in the Dearborn Independent.

However, Mr. Benson relates that Ford repeatedly denied that he felt antipathy toward the individual Jew and pointed out that many were in his employ. After the campaign had been underway for some time Mr. Benson said Ford suddenly told him he would stop printing the articles, giving as his reason that "there is too much anti-Semitic feeling."

The biography which is published by Funk and Wagnalls company says Ford declared on the occasion that he discussed America's entry into the war that all that is the matter with this world is injustice. "Establish justice and everything will be all right."

Asked what should be done, Mr. Benson said Ford told him that the salaries of the supreme court justices should be increased but did not recommend a change in the appointing power that makes the judges.

FOUR MEN UNDER MILITARY GUARD AT TULSA, OKLA.

Arrests Result from Intensive Probe by the Authorities

(By the Associated Press)
TULSA, Okla., Aug. 16.—Four men were under military guard here tonight as a result of intensive investigation thruout the day by state officials seeking the identity of perpetrators of recent floggings in this vicinity.

Adjutant General Baird Markham, commander of the troops here, was still conducting the military inquiry this evening. Three of the four men being held by the military are residents of Red Fork and the fourth man is said by state officials to be a special deputy sheriff working under Sheriff Bob Sanford. The Red Fork men are John Philip Hendricks, E. H. King, and his brother, Burt King. No charges have yet been filed against any of them.

The state's investigation is being conducted by a military company headed by Adjutant General Markham and by members of the staff of Attorney General George F. Short. Markham this evening had been 10 hours in his headquarters at a local hotel questioning the men taken into custody and witnesses summoned to identify them.

The military court of inquiry which had been functioning for two days was abandoned today while a committee of officials directed their attention to the men now under guard.

No statements definitely connecting the men now held with the Nathan Hantaman whipping here last Friday night were forthcoming from the investigators today. Attorney General Short said, however, that information now in possession of the military authorities seemed related to other whippings.

Martial law continues with guardsmen on duty on principal streets after 11:30 p. m., and seen but little during the day.

The guard last night was doubled and unconfirmed reports early this evening rumored a still further increase tonight.

CORONER'S INQUEST IN MINE DISASTER WILL START TODAY

Body of Last Victim Was Taken Out of Mine Yesterday

(By the Associated Press)
KEMMERER, Wyo., Aug. 16.—With the removal today of the last body from Frontier Mine No. 1, of the Kemmerer Coal company where an explosion occurred last Tuesday morning announcement was made here tonight that a coroner's inquest into the disaster which cost 98 lives will be held tomorrow morning. The body of the last victim taken from the mine was that of Fire Boss Thomas Roberts. The body was found by Roberts' brother James who had refused to leave the mine without securing some definite information for the Roberts family.

The body was badly burned indicating that Roberts was close to the scene of the explosion.

Coroner E. W. Holmes this afternoon investigating an unverified rumor that a safety lamp which Roberts had been carrying had been found open near his body. If the report were true it was pointed out it would have an important bearing on the cause of the explosion which the coroner's jury will attempt to ascertain tomorrow.

As a preliminary to the inquest the coroner questioned P. F. Patterson, state mining inspector and officials of the United States bureau of mines rescue car who have been working in the mine since the blast.

Estimates made today by mine officials indicated that the death toll in the explosion will cost the state workmen's compensation fund approximately $200,000 in compensation to be paid to survivors of those who lost their lives.

All business will be suspended in Kemmerer tomorrow afternoon when funerals will be held. One hundred men, fellow workers of those who lost their lives, were busy at the local cemetery today digging large graves to hold several coffins each.

The Japanese Colony is digging one grave large enough for seven, ten caskets containing the bodies of Japanese who lost their lives in the blast. Arrangements have been made for the community burial service in city park tomorrow afternoon under the auspices of the Lincoln county United Mine Workers of America local.

City Of Denver Is Threatened By Flood

(By the Associated Press)
DENVER, Colo., Aug. 16.—Flood waters are sweeping down the Platte Canon toward Denver, following a terrific cloudburst early tonight, according to information received at the Denver Police department shortly after 8 o'clock.

Every available policeman has been rushed to the lowlands bordering the Platte river outside of Denver, and residents are being warned to move to higher ground. The flood waters are expected to reach here in a half hour.

Water is spreading over the lowlands in the vicinity of Littleton, ten miles from here and near Englewood a suburb of Denver. Telephone operators at summer resorts in the Platte Canon where the water is rising notified the Denver police department.

No loss of life as the result of the inundation has been reported thus far.

At 8:30 o'clock this evening all telephone connections with Littleton were reported out of order and it was impossible for officers here to get into communication with that place.

The first indications of the new approach of the high water to the city were given shortly after 9 o'clock when patrolmen reported that the Platte River was rising near Overland Park, the big motor tourist camp on the outskirts of the city where approximately 3,500 tourists are encamped.

Shortly afterward, houses nearby along the lowlands beside the river banks were inundated in spite of the threatened prosecutions by Francis G. Blair, state superintendent of public instruction. An opinion rendered today by Attorney General Brundage holds that publishers cannot be prosecuted where they are selling books in other states under contracts signed before they filed lists in Illinois.

The opinion affects twenty or more publishers who faced prosecutions for alleged discrimination.

On July 1, 1922, the text book publishers filed new price lists with State Superintendent of Public Instruction Francis G. Blair. Early this year it was found the publishers were selling the same books in other states cheaper. Mr. Blair advised twenty of the publishers to file new lists according with prices in other states, promising legal proceedings to enforce the law.

It was discovered subsequently that the books sold at lower prices in other states were offered under contracts entered into previously to July 1922.

While the courts have not decided the point the attorney general held that the law should be construed to apply only to reductions made in other states after the filing of the lists in Illinois and not to prices made under contract in other states prior to that time.

Opinions on the questions were obtained from the attorney general of Mississippi and Wisconsin, where similar laws prevail and where similar rulings have been made.

STRIKERS PREPARE FOR ALL DAY PICNIC AT HILLSBORO SUNDAY

Address to be Delivered by President John H. Walker
(By the Associated Press)
HILLSBORO, Ill., Aug. 16.—Preparations were begun here today for an all day picnic and rally to be held Sunday by the striking employees of the American Zinc company here who followed a strike call a week ago Tuesday in an effort to enforce recognition of the International Mine, Mills and Smelter Workers Union.

John H. Walker, president of the Illinois Federation of Labor will attend the festivities and is expected to deliver an address as will Edward Karbine, organizer of the local union. The rally will be at Funk Lake, five miles from here.

Hillsboro and Taylor Springs, where the plant is located were quiet today while the ten units of the Illinois National Guard remained on strike duty around the plant. Sheriff Charles J. Hill, continued to augment his force of special deputies in order to be prepared to handle the situation whenever the troops are called away.

While no definite word has been received as yet from Springfield as to the date of the withdrawal of the troops indications are that they will be called back early next week one unit at a time.

Strike leaders asserted today that their ranks had been increased by others leaving their posts while company officials said the number of men who returned to their posts had increased to 196. About 300 men were working in the plant before the strike began.

FEAR SUSPENSION IN PRODUCTION OF ANTHRACITE COAL

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Hopes of prevention of a stoppage in Anthracite coal production after September 1 were near the vanishing point tonight. The second day of the United States coal commission's attempts to aid settlement of labor disputes in the industry ended with miners' union officials completely dissatisfied with the response of the operators contingent to the union's proposition to abandon the "checkoff" with the operators charging the union with "determination to avoid settlement except upon its own terms; and with John Hayes Hammond, the commission chairman declaring that frankly the outlook is discouraging."

Moreover, the commission itself, behind closed doors and with each party group separately present, sought to explore new avenues for settlement and faced a complete block. Sweeping aside the "checkoff" and all other technicalities of wage contracts and negotiations which have been in such stubborn dispute, the commission asked each group to say how far it would go to join an arbitration arrangement which would let the mines keep on running after September 1, while all the disputes were left to adjudication with the decision retroactive to September 1.

John L. Leis, as president and Mine Workers gave to the commission spokesman for the United Mine Workers gave to the mission what was interpreted as a flat refusal of operators' policy committee headed by S. D. Warriner, was prepared to go to considerable distance with any arbitration proposals. His assistants Mr. Warriner said will leave every point unsettled by such arbitration in the hands of mutually satisfactory. The operators said they also would agree to ask from arbitrators no reduction in the present wage scale in the mines; and that leave the union assured of at least some gains.

All the commission's efforts were directed to finding some basis of proceeding that would keep the mines running while negotiations are carried on. Faced with the blockade, the federal agency asked both sides to put their responses in writing and to bring them back tomorrow for further conference. It was generally expected, however, that the commission would be obliged tomorrow to conclude its intervention, leave the operators and miners as it found them—far apart—and report findings.

ORDER CHICAGO PHONE RATES REDUCED

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—Telephone rates in Chicago were ordered reduced by approximately $1,900,000 a year effective Oct. 1, 1923, by order of the Illinois Commerce commission made public today.

PRICES OF SCHOOL BOOKS TO REMAIN SAME FOR PRESENT

Attorney General So Rules in Opinion Thursday

(By the Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 16.—Prices of school books in Illinois in some cases one-third higher than in other states, will remain unchanged for the present in spite of the threatened prosecutions by Francis G. Blair, state superintendent of public instruction. An opinion rendered today by Attorney General Brundage holds that publishers cannot be prosecuted where they are selling books in other states under contracts signed before they filed lists in Illinois.

The opinion affects twenty or more publishers who faced prosecutions for alleged discrimination.

Savannah, Ga., Aug. 6.—Federal and state officers still were active today following their wholesale raids and arrests here yesterday in which a banker, lawyer and scores of other citizens were haled before United States commissioners and released on temporary bonds totalling approximately $750,000.

Officers said their arrests were pending as an aftermath of the raids and action taken by a federal grand jury, which in returning indictments against William Haas and others charged in several counts with wholesale conspiracy to violate the prohibition laws and revealed alleged plots to smuggle liquor from France, Great Britain and her possessions, and Cuba.

The government further charged intoxicating beverages were landed at Fernandina, Jacksonville and Miami, Fla., Wilmington, N. C., Charleston, S. C., and other places "consisting usually of 500 cases of 15,000 gallons."

GATHERINGS OF ANY KIND BARRED IN STEUBENVILLE

Order Results from Gun Battle with Ku Klux Klan

(By the Associated Press)
STEUBENVILLE, Ohio, Aug. 16.—Fearing a recurrence of last night's anti-Ku Klux Klan rioting and subsequent gun battle, in which four men were shot, Mayor Frank Hawkins tonight issued an order to police to prevent public demonstrations of any kind, the ban extending to gatherings, parades and even small assemblies on the streets.

Rumors of Klan reprisals tonight were not given much credence by officials but nevertheless precautions are being taken to meet any emergency. Authorities of the city and county said outside help would not be asked. Klansmen from other Ohio cities arrived here today but were said to be here aiding in the investigation into the shooting of Darwin L. Gibson, 35, local Klan leader by alleged rioters three of whom were wounded.

Gibson is in a critical condition in a local hospital with a bullet at the base of the brain where it cannot be removed according to surgeons. John DeSantes, 27, who has a bullet in left eye and Moschino Spinetti, 26, shot thru the left wrist are also in hospital. Spinetti was removed from the county jail to a hospital tonight and with DeSantes placed under guard.

Frank Veltry, charged with shooting with intent to kill Gibson, is being held at the county jail without bond. Six East Liverpool Klansmen arrested for carrying concealed weapons when they came here early today, armed with shot guns and revolvers, were still held in jail tonight, the mayor having deferred their hearing.

City and county officials are seeking a fourth man, who is said to have been shot in the gun fight.

According to Gibson the man was the one who struck him with a blackjack. Gibson said he shot him in the chest.

Officials learned that local doctors had treated a man today who had such a wound as that described by Gibson.

In a statement issued today the local Ku Klux Klan asserted that last night's riot was the outcome of lax law enforcement and demanded the resignation of Frank Hawkins, mayor and Blaine Carter, chief of police of Steubenville. The statement said that Hawkins was one of the original members of the Klan here but had been banished because he had violated the oath of office. The statement declared that the city police force was in sympathy with the anti-Klan outbreak.

(By the Associated Press)
SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Aug. 16.—Federal forest rangers today conscripted men on the streets of Santa Barbara and rushed them to the fire in the Santa Barbara forest which has been burning for two weeks and was believed to have been brought under control. A high wind revived the fire and swept it over twenty sections last night. Rangers Dunn and his crew of fighters narrowly escaped being trapped by the flames when they suddenly broke out anew. The men were forced to make all speed in moving their camp to save the equipment.

Altho deer and other game are reported fleeing before the fire hunters have left the country as all idle men in the fire territory are forced by federal rangers to fight the flames.

The rangers reported the flames are driving across the eastern end of the great San Marcos ranch and are coming toward this city.

A public park at Youngstown, Ohio, has just been dedicated to the memory of the late President

Such a memorial is far more enduring than can be true of a pile of marble or a stately shaft.
This public park will serve to one.

A SONG VICTORY

Among recent American triumphs the victory of an American choir at the Welsh national cited should not be overlooked.

The Welsh, as all the world knows, are wonderful singers, and especially excellent in vocal singing. It is an achievement worth noting when a choir from any other country goes to Wales, and, by the verdict of a jury of Welsh musicians, beats them at their own game.

The winning choir was led by a Welsh-American, and had three members of Welsh birth, but all the rest were "typical Americans," representing seven nationalities.
The result should be accepted as evidence that Americans, contrary to a formerly prevalent notion, really have good singing voices and can sing together with rare effectiveness. Choral singing in this country accordingly receives new impetus.

THE AGGRIEVED RAILROAD

The railroad worm has turned.
Weary of the aggression of reckless automobilists, it has struck back. The Chicago and Eastern Illinois brought suit against a Danville business man—or rather, against his estate—for bump-ing into a locomotive, and has won the suit.

The offender, it was held, had no business driving onto the track at the moment when a passenger train was passing. His carelessness resulted in the derailment of the locomotive, and the death of the engineer. The fact that the automobilist and his car were smashed up was held to be of no consequence, as far as the railroad was concerned.
That may have been moral justice, but the railroad wanted material justice in the form of a cash payment for damages sustained. And it got them. Evidently even a locomotive has some rights that an automobile is bound to respect.

ROTARY CLUB VISITS
PACKING PLANT

Members Were Guests of Fred
Begg at Powers-Begg Plant
Thursday

Members of the Jacksonville Rotary club had the pleasure yesterday of being luncheon guests of Fred Begg at the plant of the Powers-Begg Co. The excellent menu served in the big cooling room of the plant included practically all of the many food products prepared at the plant, together with a number of other good things to eat. The tables were attractively spread and at each place was a package of Banner Brand bacon to serve as a souvenir of the occasion.
Mr. Begg proved a most generous and courteous host.

Dr. A. H. Dooler, president of the club, presented a few matters of business including the announcement of committee appointments in connection with the district conference of Rotary club presidents and secretaries which will be held here Aug. 26 to 28. About 90 Rotarians are expected for this annual district conference. The greater part of the time will be spent at the Mercedis club house, where the business sessions are to be held.

When the luncheon had been finished the Rotarians were invited to make an inspection of the plant. Most of the time was spent in the hog department, where the processes of killing hogs and preparing them for the storage room or the meat market block were completely demonstrated. The visitors had the opportunity of seeing the complex organization that must work successfully to operate a packing plant.

The program committee had announced that Mr. Begg would make a talk on packing plant operation but he chose instead to throw open the entire plant for inspection and to let his guests learn about the packing business from observation.

The men in the group could not refrain from frequent comments upon the perfect sanitary conditions of the plant and the splendid state of repair in which the whole property is maintained.
It is evidently the pride of the management of the Powers-Begg Co. to have a plant equipped in the most modern way and measuring up fully to the best ideas in the packing industry.

Guests of the club yesterday included Amos Swain, J. H. Mallen, W. D. James, W. Barr Brown,
J. L. Henry, F. M. Crabtree, William Gilbert and Cleon Bell of the Powers-Begg Co.

WORK OF MISS RUBY
NORTON IS STUDIED

Baptist Women Devote Afternoon to Hearing of Work in Crow Indian Mission Field — Miss Norton Well Known Former Resident Here.

"A Week With Miss Ruby Norton" was the subject considered at the regular meeting of the Baptist Women's Union held at the church yesterday afternoon.
Mrs. E. O. Mayer was the leader and the material used in the meeting was sent to her by Miss Norton from the Crow Indian Mission field, where she has been laboring for several years.

The second vice president, Miss Dollie Bowen, presided during the meeting. The meeting opened with a song, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," which was followed by the business session. Devotional scripture was read by Mrs. E. O.
Mayer, the leader for the afternoon. Mrs. W. T. Spires led in prayer.

Mrs. Mayer then read Miss Norton's letter to the Union. Mrs. A.
B. Williamson read the history of the Crow Indian Mission. Their habits, recreations and mannerisms were described in a paper by Miss Bowen. The work of each day for a week as outlined by Miss Norton, was described by the following ladies:

Sunday, Miss Elizabeth Lowrie.
Monday, Mrs. Parks.
Tuesday and Wednesday, Mrs.
Charles Fletcher.
Thursday and Friday, Mrs. G. T.
Richardson.
Saturday, Mrs. George Hocking.
Sunday, Miss Elizabeth Stephens.

There was a fair attendance at the meeting considering the inclement weather. Miss Norton had included with her accounts of her work several kodak pictures of Indian life on the reservation.

These were passed among the members. At the close of the program Mrs. C. H. Story led in prayer. A social hour followed during which light refreshments were served.

Miss Ruby Norton is a former resident of this city, having been educated in the local schools. She has many friends in the Baptist church here, who have kept in touch with her during her years of work among the Indians in the northwest.

The laughs pile up on each other like players in a football

ANDY GUMP COMING TO THE CHAUTAUQUA

Sidney Smith, Creator of Most Famous Cartoon Character in World, Will Visit Jacksonville Saturday Afternoon.

"ANDY GUMP"

There is no doubt that the Gumps have secured a firm place in the hearts of the American people, and there is no person who will create more interest and whom the people are more desirous to see, hear and meet than Sidney Smith, the creator of those famous characters. It was a great achievement when the Chautauqua Committee secured him for the Chautauqua program. He is to be here Saturday afternoon. If the travel will permit, he expects to come in his famous Rolls Royce car. His entertainment will consist of a fascinating talk upon newspaper art, illustrated with many drawings executed while he talks, showing the characters which the American people have learned to love. Those who have heard Sidney Smith in these entertainments report that he is one of the most fascinating entertainers upon the American platform. Added to this is the notoriety which brings him to the minds and hearts of millions of people every day throughout America. All this will insure a record breaking crowd at the Chautauqua grounds. Every one should be on hand early in order to get good seats.

The remains are to reach Virginia Saturday afternoon and the funeral services will be held at the home of Oscar M. Crum, a brother of the deceased, at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The services will be in charge of Rev. Max B. Wiles of the Presbyterian church.

WILL COMBINE LOCAL RAILWAY OFFICES

It is now stated definitely that the consolidation of the Chicago and Alton and the Burlington passenger stations here will become effective September 1. It was understood yesterday that the three local operators for the Burlington have received official notice that they will soon be at liberty to exercise their seniority rights in bidding on jobs outside Jacksonville.

It is understood that the C. and A. will furnish the three operators necessary for the work in the switch tower. As a result of this plan unless there is some change the three Burlington operators will leave Jacksonville for other points.

The change will also displace the three men at the tower south of the station, also three other operators of the C. and A. will be brought to the city. There are various details of the joint station plan which have not yet been announced, and the employees of the road have not been fully advised. C. B. and Q. trains will stop at the Alton station.

WITH THE SICK

Mrs. Victor Wood and baby daughter returned to their home on Hardin avenue from Passavant hospital yesterday afternoon.

POSTPONE FARM BUREAU MEETING

A community farm bureau meeting was scheduled for Thursday night at the home of the Misses Crum in Prentice neighborhood. It was postponed however, on account of the bad weather. County Agent Kendall has held a series of such meetings during recent weeks. It is interesting to note that they have all been well attended with a great deal of interest manifested.

AMERICAN WOMEN SCORE TRIUMPHS

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 16.—(By The Associated Press)—American women tennis stars scored another signal victory over their British rivals today when they eliminated two of the three remaining invaders in the round before the semi-finals of the national singles championship at the West Side Tennis Club.

Miss Helen Wills, sensational Berkeley, California school girl and Miss Eleanor Goss, of New York were the triumphant Americans in two extra set matches that developed the most scintillating play of the tournament. The sturdy coast girl rallied after an uncertain start, and for the second time within a week, vanquishing Miss Kathleen McKane, ranking British player 2-6, 6-2, 7-5, while Miss Goss gained the verdict over Miss Nancy Covell, in a tensely fought duel 6-1, 2-8, 8-6.

Mrs. R. C. Clayton, the British survivor in the singles and Mrs. Molla Mallory who is seeking her eighth national title had an easier time reaching the semi-finals round. The former disposed of Miss Leslie Bancroft of Boston No. 2 in the American ranking, 6-3, 6-1, while the title holder quickly eliminated her youthful rival, Miss Helen Hooker, of Greenwich, Conn., by a similar margin. The semi-final matches tomorrow afternoon will bring together Mrs. Mallory and Miss Clayton in the upper half of the draw, while Mrs. Goss will oppose Miss Wills in the lower half.

One British and three American pairs were left in the running for the national doubles championship play in which also reached the semi-finals. All came thru decisively today in their third round matches and, barring an upset the British combination of Miss Kathleen McKane and Miss Covell is expected to contest for the title on Saturday with Miss Gause and Mrs. George W. Whitman of Boston. The English women will play Mrs. Helen G. Lockhorn of Mamaroneck, New York and Mrs. Natalie Morris, of New York in the upperhalf of the draw tomorrow while the American favorites will oppose the youthful Miss Ceres Baker of Orange, N. J. and Miss Lillian Scharman of New York.

Victories Spectacular
The victories of Miss Wills and Miss Goss, both coming after spectacular, closely fought struggles were the high spots of today's program. The coast girl, despite her wildness in the first set flashed the most brilliant sort of tennis in defeating Miss McKane. Thruout the match it was a baseline duel but Miss Wills had much the better of the exchanges at the net when they volleyed at close quarters.

Aided by her young opponent's errors and driving with beautiful precision herself, Miss McKane swept thru the first set easily but the coast girl, gathering confidence as she got the range of the lines captured the second just as decisively.

Miss Wills started the third set running into an advantage of 5-1 on games before Miss McKane made her last desperate stand. The English woman racing from side to side to make frequent marvelous returns of Miss Wills' powerful forehand shots, took four games in a row to square the set. But the effort weakened Miss McKane and she was an easy victim in the last two and deciding games.

One of the most remarkable bits of work by Miss Wills in the final set came in the sixth game, when, after trailing at 2-3, on her own service she took the straight points to win the game. The Goss-Covell encounter was curiously similar to the Wills-McKane match the final set in fact bringing out the best competition of the day. Miss Goss was at her best in the opening set, driving powerfully and accurately to win by 6-1, but the second set found a complete reversal of form, with Mrs. Covell holding the upper hand all the way to square the match at 6-2.

For twelve games of the third set each won on service. Leading 6-5 on games, Mrs. Covell was closest to victory when she brought the twelfth game to deuce, but two beautiful placements enabled Miss Goss to square the set once more.

The break in favor of the American came in the next game. Four times the game was deuce before the British woman weakened, a double fault and an out on her part giving the game to Miss Goss.

The deciding game also went to deuce on the American service but again Miss Covell's errors gave the winning points to her opponent and the set by a score of 8-6.

SWIMMING POOL IS THEME AT KIWANIS

Club Members Hear Discussion by Dr. Garm Norbury, Who Tells Evil Effects of Constant Diving—Park Board Members Guests at Meeting

Members of the park board were guests yesterday at the regular meeting of the local Kiwanis club, at which Dr. Garm Norbury explained the running of a swimming pool. He told of the indoor and outdoor types of pools, the one to be used all the year round, and the other only in the summer months. Some pools have a system by which the same water can be used many times, as it is thoroughly sterilized with proper chemicals each time it is used. In the type of pool which was constructed for Jacksonville, the water is discharged whenever it becomes stale and fresh water is put into the pool. However, care should be taken in this case also to see that the water is properly sterilized and made safe for bathing purposes.

In speaking of the individual bather, Dr. Norbury emphasized the fact that no one with any open lesion of the skin or infection of any kind should be allowed to bathe in the pool. This applies to those with sores which might become infected from contact with the water.

The speaker told something of the ill effects of long continued bathing and diving. Often persons who stay too long in the water have their power of resistance reduced and suffer discomfort. Long continued diving may injure the eyes and respiratory organs. The reduction of the normal air pressure on the ears and upper respiratory organs weakens them and causes irritation. The rapid and long continued diving may wash away the natural secretion of the eyes and cause great irritation and perhaps permanent injury. However, the time which anyone should remain in the water is or should be governed by the feelings of the individual. The weakening of the entire system indicates whether the stay in the pool is becoming injurious to the body.

Carrett Hedge, the new director of voice at the Illinois Conservatory of Music, was called upon at the club meeting. He came here from Athens, Tenn., where he was a past president and active member of the Kiwanis club. He has served as lieutenant governor of the Kiwanis district comprising the states of Kentucky and Tennessee, and was for a time acting governor of the district. Miss Catherine Rapp furnished the club with a group of songs during the opening program, which were greatly enjoyed by all present.

Guests present at the meeting yesterday included Mrs. George T. Hollinger, Terrance Brennan, S. W. Nichols and T. W. Beadle, members of the park board, and also James Barnes.

LIST OF ENTRIES FOR FAIR GROWING

J. L. Henry Calls Meetings of Department Heads—Cities and Towns Are Billed in Wide Radius

Entries for the Morgan county fair are constantly coming into headquarters at the Chamber of Commerce. The work of billing the country and surrounding towns for the fair is going forward as rapidly as the weather will permit. Bills have already been posted as far south as White Hall. Business men in the cities to the south were cordial to the advertisers and allowed the announcements of the fair to be placed in their stores and windows.

The midway has now been staked off and is much wider in some sections than that of last year. There are a number of desirable spaces yet to be sold along the midway, although the sale of space has been rapid. At noon Saturday bids will be opened for exclusive rights to the grand stand and center field in the matter of concessions.

President J. L. Henry of the fair association is calling a meeting of the heads of several departments for this evening, and the remainder of the department heads will meet sometime Saturday. These meetings are for the purpose of receiving reports and arranging the work. Signs for the various departments will be displayed on the tents in which they will be located, are being painted.

SCOPE OF PUBLICITY FOR CITY WIDENING

Fred High Will Tell Story of Jacksonville Before Meeting of Kiwanis Clubs in Iowa—Booklet Sent Broadcast—Big Magazine to Get Story

A letter has been received here from Fred High, stating that he is soon to address a district meeting of Kiwanis clubs to be held at Dubuque, Iowa, and has been especially invited to tell the story of his campaign to put Jacksonville on the map. It is to be remembered that this is a district meeting and the news of the city's attractive features will be spread to cities throughout two states by this address.

Five thousand copies of the booklet which Mr. High wrote concerning Jacksonville have been received at the Chamber of Commerce. The booklets are being mailed to all members of that organization, and to all who are invited to attend the homecoming at the Morgan county fair. They are also being sent to secretaries of Chambers of Commerce throughout the Midwest.

Meanwhile, in the Chicago office of Mr. High's American Community association, another 5,000 copies of the booklet are being mailed out to industrial plants all over the nation. It is the intention of the publicity bureau to publish the advantages of this city far and wide.

Some local citizens have also been assigned to write stories of various noteworthy features of the city, which Mr. High will endeavor to publish in prominent magazines. Systems, the Magazine of Business, has indicated that it can use a story of Jacksonville enterprise, which must be written under the signature of a local business man who had part in the co-operative effort being carried out here.

FUNERAL OF MRS. A. T. CAPPS TODAY

Brief mention was made in a recent issue of the Journal of the death of Mrs. Alfred T. Capps, which occurred at 8:30 o'clock yesterday evening. Funeral services will be held at 10:30 o'clock this morning at the residence, 604 North Church street, with interment in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Anna Laura Huntley was born in this city on July 14, 1865, a daughter of the late William Franklin and Mary Morrison Huntley. She received her education in the local schools and was a graduate of the Jacksonville high school and Illinois College Conservatory of Music.

On October 17, 1888, she was united in marriage to Alfred T. Capps of this city, who survives her, together with the following children: Julian Huntley Capps of Indianapolis, Eleanor Capps Sieffin of Washington, D. C., Alfred M. Capps of this city, Charles W. Capps of Wichita, Kan., and Alfred Capps, Jr., of Jacksonville. She also leaves two sons, Henry W. Huntley of Chicago and Franklin S. Huntley of Philadelphia, Pa., and one sister, Mrs. Mary Huntley Welch.

Residing in this city practically all her life Mrs. Capps made a wide circle of friends. She was a member of Grace M. E. church, the Jacksonville Woman's club and the Ladies' Education society, and always took an active part in each of them. By her ready sympathy and unselfish nature she endeared herself to people in all walks of life. Her greatest achievement was the happy home which she made for her family.

ATTENDED KANKAKEE POLITICAL ROUNDUP.

Tandy motored to Springfield Wednesday and from there took the special train to Kankakee, Ill., to attend the big political roundup held at Kankakee. There were sixteen coaches on the train which left Springfield and about one hundred were in attendance from Jacksonville. Mr. Dye returned to his Chicago office and Mrs. Dye returned to this city.

STORM BLOWS DOWN CHAUTAUQUA TENTS

Were All Replaced Yesterday—More Campers This Year Than Ever—Many Improvements This Year

During the storm early yesterday morning the chautauqua grounds paid toll to the extent of 10 tents blown down and 50 with part of their stakes missing. In one row of five tents in the north end of the camp three were blown down. Yesterday morning the gangs got busy and made the necessary repairs, so that by noon 120 tents were up. This is by far the largest number that has ever been set up on the local chautauqua grounds. Fifteen tents have been pitched west of the lagoon and near the lake, a place where none have ever stood before.

The greatest feat accomplished by the two teams of 11 men however was in pitching and arranging the auditorium tent. This year it is by far better than ever before. At the rear of the platform a sounding board has been constructed which, besides aiding the hearing of the audience, adds a greater beauty and a look of more stability and permanence to the platform. Cretonne strips have been tastefully hung from the top of this board and green burlap has been stretched below the front of the platform. The color scheme used and the system of decoration followed make the stage an artistic creation.

Another new feature that will greatly please chautauqua goers is the new seating system. Wooden folding chairs have been secured that are infinitely more comfortable than last years canvas horrors that tore and sagged.

Drinking Fountain Placed Late yesterday afternoon work on the drinking fountain was completed. This year it is set in the ground and will doubtless prove more satisfactory in keeping the water cold and the surrounding ground dry.

Some 40 per cent of the campers were already moved in last night. All day yesterday drays, trucks, and touring cars were entering the grounds with their loads of household goods. It looked as though the whole county was on the trek.

Senator Lenroot, the mainstay of today's program, will come to this vicinity over a fast Burlington train and will be met at Concord by J. W. Merrigan, vice president of the chautauqua association and brought to the city in Mr. Merrigan's car.

Vieria's Hawaiians were in town yesterday and in the company of Ordain Fox, local Redpath representative, looked over the chautauqua grounds. They left yesterday afternoon for Old Salem chautauqua where they are billed and will then go to Lincoln before coming here.

The cast of the play "Turn to the Right" that is billed for this evening will arrive at 10:50 this morning.

William Rainey Bennett, orator, will come Monday night at 9:00 o'clock.

The wiring of tents, which is being done by Sieber, went on steadily yesterday and the greater number were electrified by the end of the day. An unusually large number of campers are having their tents wired this year.

One of the outfits to move in yesterday afternoon was the Woodson Woman's club, which will have a large tent in the south end of the camp. Mrs. Lella Craig, Mrs. Ida Quimby and son Tommy motored up from Woodson to arrange the furnishings. Several of the club ladies expect to take turns in occupying the tent.

What will probably be one of the most densely populated tents on the grounds was occupied yesterday by Mrs. Emma Cully and six children and Mr. and Mrs. Walker Henderson and five children, all of Joy Prairie neighborhood.

PICNIC POSTPONED BY BAD WEATHER

The picnic which was to have been given yesterday by the members of the Sacred Heart church of Franklin was postponed on account of inclement weather. It is announced that the picnic will probably be given some time within the next two weeks but the actual time has not been set. A great many chickens had been fattened for this feast and these will be kept in condition until the picnic occurs, the date of which will be announced later.

BIG LOSS YEARLY AT PASSAVANT HOSPITAL

Averaged $3,500 a Year the Last Three Years—No One is Re-fused Admission

In discussing hospital expenses recently a member of the staff at Passavant hospital stated that in the course of the past three years the astounding amount of $10,600.30 remains on the hospital books unpaid, this being an average of $3,500 per year.

This amount represents not only the cases admitted to the hospital on which there was absolutely no chance of ever receiving any payment, but also other cases where partial payments were made as long as it was possible for the persons to make payments, but who on account of sickness or other causes were unable to complete the payments on their bills.

The above amounts cover only the ordinary hospital care and does not include extras such as dressings or other things necessary for the proper care of the case.

WHITE HALL SEEKS MORE INDUSTRIES

Greene County City Anxious to Secure Knitting Factory—Overall Plant Increases Output.

White Hall, Aug. 16.—Local public attention is beginning to center around the large clock dial that has been erected on the upstairs corner of J. D. Rowe's real estate office in the interest of a campaign for bringing a knitting mill to White Hall. The proposition is stated by the factory committee of the chamber of commerce to be the best that is yet offered. It is proposed to erect a $30,000 factory building and invest $100,000 additional in equipment and surroundings on condition that White Hall provide a fund of $10,000 as part compensation for the expense of removal from another point. The clock now points at the $3,000 mark, and committees are vigorously pushing the raising of the additional $7,000. It is proposed to put to work on the start 75 men, boys, women and girls, and the force will be increased 250 more as rapidly as workers can be secured.

This has nothing to do with the recent establishment of the overall factory, where forty machines are in operation by W. F. Houchin. When the new proposition came up Mr. Houchin stated that it would not affect his works at all, as there is plenty of labor available for both, and that within ninety days he would have a force double that at present employed, machines having been ordered with that in view. The output has now reached 800 pairs of overalls daily. His floor space is so large that he has contracted for a year with the White & Meyers Chautauqua Circuit of Kansas City to use the third and parts of the second and first floors for storage and repair purposes, and this becomes the distributing point for this great chautauqua circuit. Outfits are already arriving for replenishment, and it means several people employed in repair work and a large increase in the volume of shipping. The accessibility by the railroads was the inducement that led to the coming of the chautauqua enterprise.

PASSAVANT HOSPITAL TENT AT CHAUTAUQUA

Passavant hospital has arranged to have a tent at the chautauqua this year at which a nurse will be on duty at all times for first aid. The management has very kindly arranged a tent very near the main tent so that the nurse on duty will be able to enjoy a part of the programs and yet be near in case first aid is needed. The nurses will change daily so that all may have the benefit of attending the chautauqua and enjoying the outing.

It is announced that all friends of the hospital are very cordially invited to take advantage of this tent and are welcome to visit there or to leave packages, lunch baskets or other things in the care of the nurse who is on duty, for safe keeping.

LATEST NEWS OF THE SPORTING WORLD

MYERS BROTHERS TO COME SUNDAY

Fast Springfield Team Here Again—Cardinals May Be Seen Here September 13 or 14.

The Indians will meet the Myers Brothers team of Springfield Sunday afternoon for the second time this season. In the first game the visitors won in the tenth frame by a score of 6 to 3. The local boys have the idea that the visiting team cannot repeat and anyone who witnessed the class of ball exhibited by the Indians last Sunday will easily join with them in their belief, as it would have taken some very high class players indeed to have stopped them, the fact they were travelling. The locals will use the same lineup that was used last Sunday, as the new recruit, Smith, seems to thoroughly know his stuff.

Manager Smith is still negotiating with the St. Louis Cardinals for an exhibition game here on either September 13 or 14. The matter is now up to Judge Landis for his sanction of the game, and when this is received the locals will be prepared to start the sale of tickets, 1500 of which must be sold before the contract can be closed.

This should not be a very difficult matter as every fan in Jacksonville and all the surrounding territory should welcome a chance to see a big league team in action at their own door, without the enormous expense of travelling to some city to witness a game. The Cardinals agree to play their regular line-up and we then could see just how good the Indians really are, by comparison. The price of admission has been set at 55 cents for a single admission, and $1.00 for a double admission ticket, the local management standing the 10 cent tax on the double admission tickets. The positive status of the matter will probably be known in a very few days.

JUNIOR GOLFERS IN SEMI-FINALS TODAY

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—(By The Associated Press)—Emerson Carey of Hutchinson, Kansas and L. A. Montedonico of Memphis, Tenn., will match prowess on the links of the Westmoreland Country Club tomorrow in one of the semi-final matches for the Western Junior Golf Championship, while the other semi-final match will be played by Ira Couch and Bob White of Chicago.

Carey won his way to the semi-final round by defeating L. F. Locke of Lake Geneva this morning 6 to 4 and then overcoming C. Hardy, Chicago public links player by the wide margin of 5 and 7. The Kansas lad drove a long ball and putted remarkably well. His Memphis opponent had a hard struggle this morning in besting Vincent Nettler of St. Louis, the match going 19 holes, but he had an easy time this afternoon taking the measure of A. Sargent of Columbus, Ohio, son of the former national open champion, George Sargent 7 and 6.

Bob White of Olympia Fields Club Chicago played well under 80 rounds and had little difficulty in eliminating W. Childs of Chicago 6 and 4 and Jack Rouz, another Chicagoan, 4 and 3.

Couch started well this morning and got a lead of four up on Richard Martin of Chicago, maintaining the advantage to the sixteenth green where he won 4 and 2. He kept up his work this afternoon and defeated Edward Cornish of Little Rock, Ark., by the comfortable margin of 6 and 5.

The tightest contests took place in the second flight. Harry Walker, Chicago public links player required 20 holes to overcome D. R. Fall of Chicago and then lost to T. J. Schmidt of Cleveland, Ohio, on the twentieth hole when his opponent sank a 39 foot putt.

Schmidt won his morning match from J. Lellower of Chicago after a grueling match of 19 holes and it was only on the second hole yesterday that Schmidt lost out in the playoff of the tie for the last place in the championship flight. Donald Carrick of Toronto, Canada survived today's round in the second flight defeating Gardner Brown of Chicago 4 and 2 and M. R. Joslyn two up.

BOSTON PROVED EASY FOR INDIANS

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 16.—Boston proved easy for the Indians this afternoon being beaten 12 to 3. Ehmske was driven from the box in the fourth inning after a bombardment by the Clevelanders. Uble was effective thruout.

An Open Letter To Tire Users of Morgan County

A manufactured article which depends entirely on workmanship and material, made on a quantity-production basis, is very apt to vary in quality.

The effort at uniformity of product is therefore responsible for the slightly increased cost of goods offered for sale.

To you as a user of tires, one tire means everything. If it is a good one you have pleasure and safety. If a poor one you have grief and danger.

Are you sure the tire you purchased at a few dollars saving is a good one? Are you sure if you go back where you got it the merchant will be there and still be selling that brand?

It is for the reasons sta out above we have handled a quality tire, made by an organization that want to deliver to you what you pay for, that is, "every tire 100% a tire."

If you too are trying to do your part 100% and appreciate quality and fair dealing, come on and join us. We are both going the same way.

COST-per-day is far more vital than cost-to-day.
That's why you should get a really good shovel or spade the next time you buy. The better quality, carefully tempered, highly polished steel blades make "Gold Tips" longer lasting. Extra strong handles hung just right give "Gold Tips" their wonderful balance and make them easier to use.

Quality lowers the cost of a shovel and spade by lengthening its life—that's why "Gold Tip" cost less than any others.

Bathing and the proper care of the skin bear directly on the question of health. Indeed, the supplies and accessories for your bath-room should be selected with just as much thought and care as those which go into the kitchen.

SPECULATIVE SENTIMENT IMPROVES MARKET

FINANCIAL.
Day's total sales 617,800 shares.
Twenty industrials averaged 90.68; net gain .63.
High 1923 — 105.38; low 86.91.
Twenty railroads averaged 78.91; net gain 11.75.
High 1923 — 90.63; low 76.73.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Speculative sentiment underwent a decided change for the better in today's stock market with the result that quoted values were pushed up in all sections of the list and the buying embraced a wider variety of shares. Short interests continued to furnish most of the buying power but commission houses again reported increased public participation particularly in high grade investment stocks.

Buying for both accounts was influenced by the signing of the minutes of the Mexican conference with its prospect of an early recognition of that country overnight indications of an early resumption of the negotiations for the anthracite miners' wage agreement, announcement of a favorable trade balance in July and further signs of improvement in the outlook for domestic trade and industry.

While little attention was paid to the foreign situation by the stock market some comfort was derived from the cable dispatches indicating that the danger of a German revolution had passed and the improvement in French exchange.

Oil shares displayed a steadier tone despite the further liquidation of some of the low price issues.

The gasoline price cutting war is generally regarded as a temporary situation brought about by the forced selling of gasoline by some of the small mid-western refiners and brokers who were pressed for funds.

The Far American issues each closed about one and one half points higher and some of the other active shares improved fractionally.

Kresge advanced four points above yesterday's final quotation. A sharp recovery in French francs which was not maintained was the feature of the foreign exchange market.

HIGHER WHEAT PRICES RESULT FROM REPORT

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—Higher prices in the wheat market today followed the government report pointing to 15.5 per cent probable reduction of winter wheat seeding this fall, but profit-taking sales wiped out most of the advance. Closing quotations were unsettled varying from 3c net decline to 3 gain with September $1.09 to 1.09 1/2 and December 1.04 1/2 to 1.04 1/2.

Corn finished 1 to 3c up, oats showing 1 to 2 to 3c rise and provisions unchanged to 20c higher. Bullish effects of the government figures in regard to domestic fall seeding of wheat were emphasized today by announcement that the wheat yield of India this season was expected to be 32,000,000 bushels less than estimates heretofore current. The changed outlook as to India was credited with being largely responsible for a material advance in quotations at Liverpool.

Rains in Illinois and Iowa likely to delay threshing and to curtail receipts at Chicago tended all so to lift values.

On the upturns in price offerings increased and setbacks ensued, but the market displayed good rallying power until near the end of the day.

Increasing arrivals of new wheat at Winnipeg together with a bearish estimate of the Canadian crop had more or less to do with the late downturn of the wheat market here. Another factor which appeared to be related to the decline at the last was gossip that many domestic mills had obtained all the wheat they need at present and that demand for flour making purposes was likely to fall off.

Corn and oats were governed chiefly by the action of wheat. Wet weather gave a little independent firmness to oats.

Higher quotations of hogs lifted the provision market.
